2. National Science Day, 2024

Event Overview:

On the auspicious occasion of National Science Day, celebrated on 27th February 2024, to mark the discovery of Raman Effect by Indian physicist Sir C.V. Raman in 1928, Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi, hosted a vibrant and intellectually stimulating event under the aegis of IQAC (Internal Quality Assurance Cell) and Viksit Bharat.

The celebration was conducted in collaboration with Indraprastha Vigyan Bharti and Mikrobiologika, showcasing a harmonious blend of academic brilliance and scientific innovation.

Theme:

The theme for this year's National Science Day was chosen to be "celebrating developments in science for Viksit Bharat." The focus was on promoting the role of science and technology in addressing contemporary global challenges and fostering sustainable solutions in making a developed nation.

Inauguration:

The event commenced with a ceremonial inauguration graced by the presence of distinguished guests and esteemed dignitaries - Prof. Rajeev Kaul, Dr. Neel Sarovar Bhavesh and Prof. Chander Kumar Singh.

Their participation in our event not only added prestige but also enriched the experience of all attendees, offering invaluable insights and perspectives garnered from years of dedication to scientific inquiry and innovation.

The event commenced with a lamp lighting ceremony accompanied by Saraswati Vandana.

The guests were felicitated with the Viksit Bharat kits by Prof. Prerna Diwan, Prof. Vandana Gupta and Dr. M Salome John as a token of respect for their exemplary contributions in the field of sciences and their eminent presence.

This was followed by an enlightening session by Prof. Kaul highlighting the importance of science and technology for the growth of economy, health and defense sectors.

“self-sustenance is the key to Viksit Bharat.”

-Prof. Kaul

The event was further addressed by a phenomenal session by Dr. Neel Sarovar Bhavesh, focusing upon the traditional Ayurveda medicines and prakriti.

The cognizant sessions came to a conclusion by an enriching session by Prof. Chander Kumar Singh, emphasizing upon the growth of India in fields of Science and technology and a consistent efforts of the country to emerge as World Leaders.

Quiz Competition:

Engaging quiz competition conducted by Dr. Neel on scientists who gave a new dimension to science added a competitive yet entertaining element to the celebration. Participants showcased their knowledge with full enthusiasm in this friendly contest. The winners were rewarded with foldscopes, provided by Dr. Neel.

This was followed by an interactive session between the eminent scientists and the students to discuss their doubts. It was remarkable to see the approaches of the dignified scholars in clearing the queries of the students.

Feedback received from attendees:

Students from all departments - Microbiology, Computer Science, Geology, BJMC, BA programme, and Political science etc. attended the event. It can be inferred from the data that maximum attendees rated the event 4 or 5 on the scale from 1-5 which proves that the event was an astounding success.

The National Science Day celebration at Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi, proved to be a resounding success, fostering a spirit of scientific inquiry, collaboration, and innovation. The event served as a platform to inspire and empower the next generation of scientists and researchers to contribute towards sustainable development. Total of 130 students and 14 faculties have joined the session. The organizing committee extends heartfelt gratitude to all participants, collaborators, sponsors, and attendees who made this celebration a memorable and impactful event in the realm of science and technology.
