

Career Counseling Session

Dept of Political Science

18th Jan 2022

The department has been regularly conducting Career Counseling Sessions for final year undergraduate students every academic session. This year also outgoing batch enthusiastically participated in a 3 hour long session wherein various career options were thoroughly discussed and their preparation strategies were etched out.

Diverse vocations which are available to Political Science graduates were deliberated upon like civil services, bureaucracy, research, digital journalism, law, civil society networking, content writer, social work, diplomacy, advertising and PR, mass communication, legislative advocacy and research etc.

The event was planned under the guidance of honourable Principal Prof. Rakesh Kumar Gupta, TIC Dr. Triranjn Raj, Society Convenor Dr. Kshama Sharma and Event Coordinator Dr. Alankar.

The response to the event was highly spirited and enthusiastic which is reflected in the feedback generated online.
