Mock Parliament on the occasion of Constitutional Day

Report

The Mock Parliament was organised on the occasion of Constitutional Day by Statecraft Society, Department of Political Science, Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi on 26 November, 2021. The Mock Parliament commenced at 10 am on Google meet. The Mock Parliament was organised under the guidance of Dr. Triranjana Raj (Head of Department), Dr. Vijay Kumar Bhatia (Function Committee Convenor) and Dr. Kshama Sharma (Program Co-ordinator). The session began with the recitation of Preamble by Utkarsh Amrit. Then Dr. Vijay Kumar Bhatia enlightened us with his knowledge about constitution. Followed by some interesting facts about the Constitution and Constituent assembly by the students. Some of those are, the first meeting of constitution was held 9th December 1946, on December 11 Rajendra Prasad was elected as the President of Constitutional assembly, Prem Behari Narain Raizada was the calligrapher of Constitution of India. There was an active audience of more than 60+ participants who also gave their inputs from time to time. The Mock Parliament ended with the recitation of a quote by APJ Abdul Kalam "When I took over as President, I studied the Constitution, and the more I studied it, the more I realised that it does not prevent the President of India from giving the nation a vision. So, when I went and presented this vision in Parliament and in legislative assemblies, everyone welcomed it, irrespective of party affiliations." The Mock Parliament received tons of appreciation from the students and the teacher alike. The vote of thanks was given by Dr. Vijay Kumar Bhatia. The session ended successfully at 11 am with a huge number of participants and remarkable feedback by them.
