

Ram Lal Anand College
PANACEA- The Statistics Society
University of Delhi

Name of the event: Interactive session

Nature of the event: Intra department

Date: 1st December 2023

Duration: 1 hour

Mode: Offline

Total number of participating students: Around 30

Interactive Session on the topic “The Experience of Being An Intern “

The session was initiated by the third-year students who aimed to impart their valuable internship experiences to fellow batch-mates and juniors. Zeenat and Abhishek Gupta, from third-year commenced the session, sharing their journey of perseverance in securing internships. Their narrative delved into the challenges of the application process, including the hustle involved in pursuing various internship opportunities. As the session progressed, they shed light on the dynamics of group discussions (GDs) and personal interviews (PIs). They articulated the complexities of adapting to diverse environments. Additionally, Simran Arora, also from third-year, contributed her experience, recounting her efforts to secure an internship amidst stiff competition.

Their collective advice underscored the importance of confidence and maintaining discipline in facing future endeavors. The overarching message conveyed was the importance of seizing new opportunities and embracing continuous learning to enhance individual growth and personality development. The session concluded on a note encouraging attendees to embrace challenges, grasp new opportunities, and continually learn to refine their personalities and skill sets.

Feedback:

“It was a great session and more & more such sessions should be held within our dept..”

“The interactive session was itself unexpected but it denoted that our seniors are more experienced and very humble to share their experiences with all of us”

“Honestly speaking the interactive session was extremely beneficial.”

The interactive session garnered exceptional feedback, with attendees unanimously praising its high value and insightful content. The internship experiences and personal anecdotes shared by the third-year students served as a source of encouragement for first and second-year students, inspiring them to seize opportunities persistently until achieving their aspirations. Overall, the feedback highlights the session's success in delivering valuable, relevant content and fostering connections among the students.

Glimpses of the Interactive Session:

Sign of Convenor