The unit organized an activity of paper bag making on the occasion of World Paper Bag Day. This was followed by a cloth donation drive on 13th July at JJ Colony. Around 27 volunteers participated in the activity which made it a successful event.

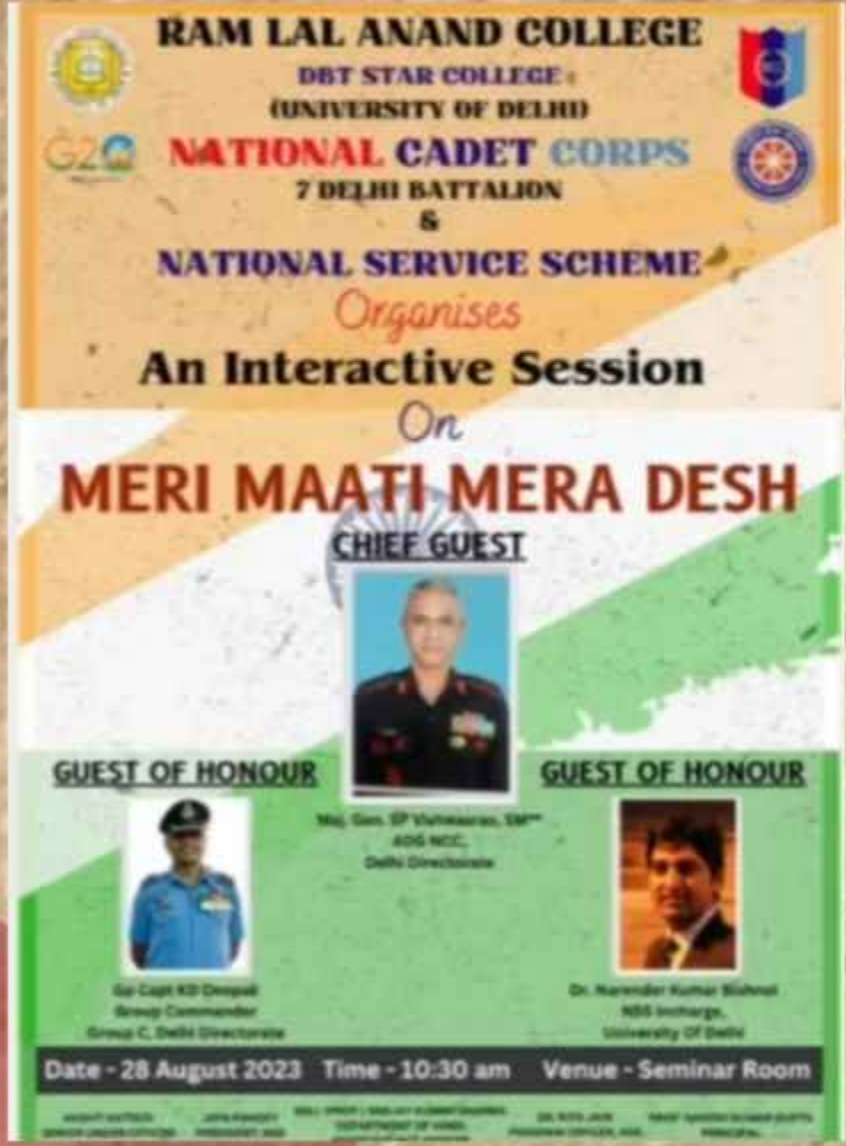

AUGUST

FLAG DISTRIBUTION DRIVE

The NSS unit celebrated the day of freedom with great zeal and pride. A total of 24 members attended the flag hoisting ceremony and took the voter's day pledge. This was followed by a flag march. A Group of 21 volunteers marched to South campus chanting slogans of patriotic zeal and love for the nation. Flag distribution was done among the children in nearby localities with the idea of Har Ghar Tirangaa. On August 28th the NSS unit along with NCC organized an event in line with PM's Meri Mati Mera Desh. This was attended by 46 volunteers. The event also saw the screening of Chandrayaan's successful landing on the moon.

In December, various cultural and religious celebrations took place, including Christmas Day on the 25th and New Year's Eve on the 31st December. Keeping in mind the crucial time of examinations, most programs were held virtually. On December 1st, a painting competition was held on World AIDS Day, themed "Remember and commit," with 30 volunteers participating. For International Volunteers Day, 61 volunteers, including 34 females, shared pictures of the service done by showcasing volunteerism under the theme "Power of collective action." Additionally, on December 23rd, an activity was organized under 'Nasha Mukh Bharat Abhiyan,' engaging 31 volunteers, including 17 females, through short videos and slogan singing to raise awareness about drug addiction. These events aimed to raise awareness about important societal issues among the youth.

With the beginning of a new year the NSS unit was vibrant with action, reflecting a renewed commitment to service and social impact. The month began with the National Youth Festival, where the President of NSS RLAC Unit represented the college in Nashik, Maharashtra, engaging in cultural events, workshops, and panel discussions on themes like youth leadership and social entrepreneurship. This was followed by the celebration of National Youth Day on January 12th, marked by an online elocution competition on the theme "Its all in the mind," with 20 volunteers participating. Another significant event was an awareness program on HIV/AIDS on January 19th, which successfully reached a broader audience with participation of 14 volunteers. The NSS unit also organized a Collection and Distribution Drive from January 22nd to 24th on the occasion of National Girl Child Day, collecting and distributing essential items for young girls at JJ Colony in which various essentials were collected by over 57 volunteers. The month concluded with an Awareness Drive and Pledge Taking Ceremony on National Voters day, January 25th, where 60 students pledged to cast their votes, contributing to the nation's democratic process. These events not only showcased the NSS unit's dedication but also made a meaningful impact on the community, aligning with the program's core objectives of social service, personality development, and youth leadership.

The National Service Scheme Unit RLAC was on a 7 Days Special Camp in Jaisalmer, Rajasthan, aimed at instilling voluntarily community service and teamwork among the volunteers. Led by Dr. Anurag Sharma and faculty support from Dr. Kuldeep Singh, Dr. Pratima Negi, and Dr. Reena Kasana, along with 40 volunteers, the camp blended community service with cultural exploration. The camp commenced with the unit's visit to government schools in village Sonhnu and Ranao with volunteers engaging with students and discussing future ambitions. They interacted with working women in Tanot village, uplifting rural livelihoods. Volunteers visited the Indo-Pak Border and interacted with BSF personnel. The visit to Longewala War Memorial was an enriching experience. Visits to Kuldhara and Damodara villages in order to identify the problems and collect data of the same was fruitful. A cleanliness drive beside the lake near village Damodara was also conducted. Volunteers cleaned the portion of sand dunes they visited and experienced the rich musical culture of Rajasthan at Sam. A survey in Amarsagar village aimed at identifying the major issues related to education, livelihood, and health status was conducted. Interactions with Border Security Force personnel at the Jaisalmer Headquarters provided insights into national security.

Survey at the refugee colony and interaction with refugee families gave fruitful information regarding the problems of border areas. Volunteers interacted with specially-abled children and engaged them in various learning activities promoting understanding among themselves. Outdoor activities like volleyball helped in fostering bonds with the cooperative Hostel students.

The camp concluded with cleanliness drives near Maheshwari Seva Sadan and Gadisar Lake showcasing the core objective of NSS . The unit then visited Jaisalmer Fort and attended the light show at Gadisar Lake. The camp aimed at blending service with cultural immersion had a positive impact on volunteers.

A special desk was organized in the college on February 15, 2024, facilitating 124 student registrations on the Bharat Portal, promoting digital engagement. It focused on assisting students without a voter ID card, showcasing an inclusive approach. Through extensive promotion and with the help of dedicated volunteers, the drive raised awareness and encouraged active participation in digital governance. Moving forward, sustaining momentum and collaborating with governmental bodies are key for enhancing digital inclusivity and access to services.

A Stray Animal Feeding Drive was conducted on February 25, 2024. The event included participation of 35 volunteers, aimed at providing basic care for stray animals and encouraging volunteer involvement.

March Report NSS EVENTS 2023-2024

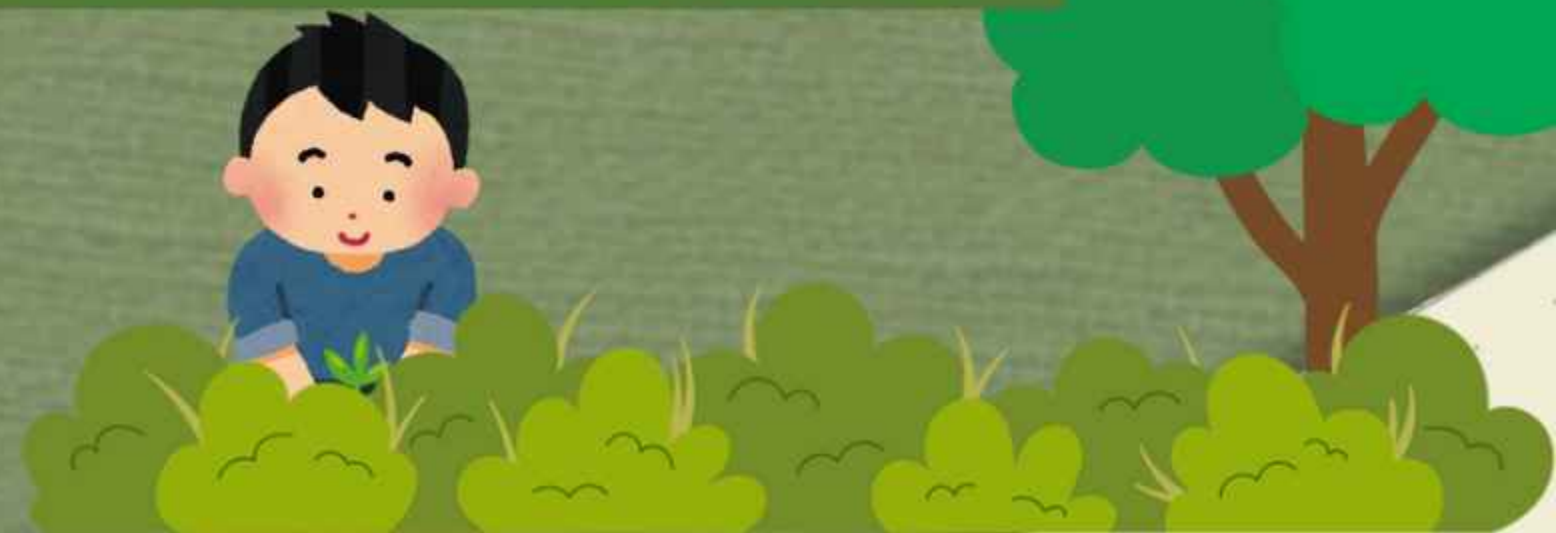

Sapling Plantation Drive

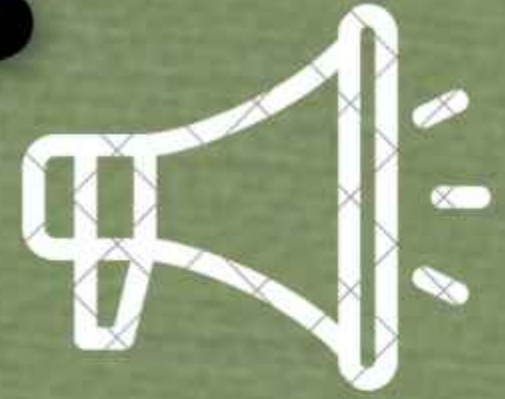

The first event of the month which was organized by National Service Scheme of Ram Lal Anand College was Sapling Plantation Drive on 3 March, 2024. This event was aimed to return something back to the nature. The volunteers were asked to send their geo-tagged pictures with plant saplings. A number of 8 volunteers sent their pictures for the event.

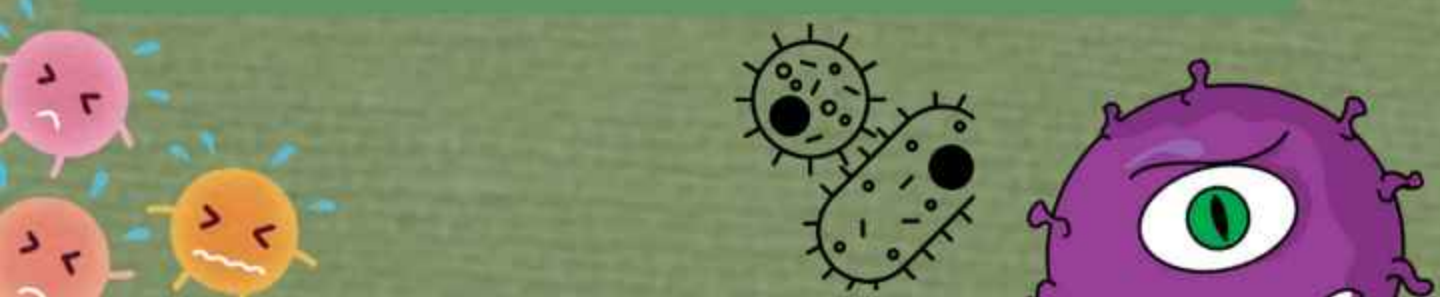

Lymphatic Filariasis Awareness Drive

Second event of this month was Lymphatic Filariasis Awareness Drive. The event was held across multiple locations: Basant Gaon, Satya Niketan, and Moti Bagh on 4, 5, and 6 March, 2024. The volunteers were asked to make posters also. A total of 37 volunteers participated for the good cause. The drive aims to spread awareness among the people about this disease.

Seminar On Water Conservation

The NSS unit of RLAC followed up their active January with a seminar on water conservation on March 8th, 2024. The session was led by Mr. Ram Kishor Singhal, a retired additional chief manager in Delhi Jal Board, who brought his expertise to the discussion. The event succeeded in reaching a broader audience and taught new ways to conserve water effectively. The event was attended by a total of 57 volunteers who listened to this amazing informative session.

The NSS Unit of Ram Lal Anand College (RLAC), in collaboration with Sangoshti: the Seminar Committee of RLAC organised a seminar & youth parliament on the topic “Naari Shakti.” The program began with the seminar lead by Shri Anil Sharma, a distinguished former MLA from R.K. Puram. From 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM, a youth parliament which focused on the Women’s Reservation Bill took center stage. This interactive session empowered participants to engage in constructive dialogue, exchanging ideas about the bill’s implementation and its potential impact. Around 60 volunteers took part in the event. This youth parliament was judged by members of NYKS (Nehru Yuva Kendra Sanghatan) who later awarded the winners as well as participants. Later a quiz was also organised by NYKS and winners were awarded for the same.

Quiz Competition

The National Service Scheme Unit of Ram Lal Anand College took a stand for child protection by organizing a captivating Quiz Competition on March 27th, 2024, starting at 6:30 PM. The quiz delved into the important themes of the POCSO Act, offering participants a chance to test their knowledge and gain valuable insights. This online event was conducted on Mentimeter, making it accessible for all interested volunteers. Around 17 volunteers took part in this online event. It provided a valuable opportunity to learn, engage, and champion child safety.

APRIL ANNUAL REPORT

EDUCATION CAMP

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Ram Lal Anand organised an education camp for the needy children from 2-12 April, 2024. It was a ten day camp where over 90 volunteers (12 each day) from the unit went to JJ colony, Moti Bagh with the aim to promote learning and education. The camp focused on providing educational support to underprivileged children.

During the camp, NSS volunteers conducted daily interactive sessions on various subjects, played educational games, held storytelling sessions and joke-sharing with children to make learning fun and captivating experience for them.

Overall, the education camp proved to be a profoundly rewarding experience not only for children but also for the volunteers who participated.

SANKALP '24

Ram Lal Anand College was transformed into a vibrant tapestry of colours, energy, and enthusiasm as Sankalp'24 took centre stage on April 22 & 23. The two-day extravaganza, organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit, RLAC served as a platform to showcase the diverse talents of students and faculty while fostering a strong sense of community spirit. We had various kinds of events covering like Nritya Taranhini, Cultural Dance Competition, Quiz Competition etc. Sankalp'24 also exemplified the spirit of community, creativity, and social responsibility, leaving a lasting impact on all who attended by organising a blood donation camp (donation by more than 21 volunteers), daan utsav (donation by more than 43 volunteers) and a seminar on youth encouragement (attended by more than 84 volunteers).

MAY ANNUAL REPORT

The National service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi, on collaboration with Zigly Foundation, conducted an Awareness Session on 4th May ,2024 . The session was conducted on Google meet at 7 PM. The Awareness Session was on “Responsible Pet Parenting”.

The webinar talked about the fact that being a pet parent means being responsible for another living being. They need to be fed, walked, cared for, and loved every day. Pets bring joy and companionship, it only makes sense that we would want to give them the best care possible and view them as members of our family.

The session was joined by around 31 Students and it turned out to be a very fruitful session where students and the speaker interacted with each other and shared their experiences with their pets.

The poster is for a webinar titled "Responsible Pet Parenting" organized by the NSS Unit of Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi, in collaboration with Zigly Foundation. The event took place on 4th May 2024 at 7:00 PM via Google Meet. The speaker is Noyonika Gogoi, an Advocate and Master's degree holder in Law in Criminology. The poster features logos of the college and foundation, a photo of the speaker, and social media handles for the college. It also lists the Programme Officer, President, and Principal.

Shri Dharmendra Pradhan ji was the Chief Guest. Shri Manoj Tiwari was the Guest of Honour for the Event. The event was conducted at Multipurpose hall, North campus.

TREE PLANTATION DRIVE

Tree/sapling plantation is a noble work, it is noble effort towards saving the nature is to stop the human-caused calamities. With the aim to contribute our part towards the conservation of the environment, under the “Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam” campaign launched by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, the National Service Scheme Unit of Ram Lal Anand College organized a tree plantation drive. It was conducted on Saturday, 27th July 2024. All volunteers were required to participate in the plantation drive and mail their geo-tagged pictures. Around 12 volunteers mailed their pics for the drive and the event was memorable to showcase the importance of conserving environment.

JULY ANNUAL REPORT

KARGIL WAR

Commemorating the Kargil Vijay Diwas, the National Service Scheme Unit of Ram Lal Anand College organized an online Poetry and Letter Writing competitions. The Event was themed on Martyrdom. It was conducted on 28th July 2024. Students submitted their poetry and letter via email. Both entries, poems and letters, were judged separately. We got around 16 entries from the volunteers in the form of poems and letters and the event turned out to be a great success and a memorable one.

KARGIL VIJAY DIWAS

On that dark night,
When the whole country calmly slept,
In the silence of those cold winters,
These brave men slowly crept,
Loaded with ammunition,
With only one ambition,
Of taking back, once to the country which belonged,
Leaving behind their kith's and kins,
To proclaim victory was all what they longed.

Taking their positions,
With the country's thought,
The posts were so silent,
So nervous were the soldiers,
But as the silence broke in haste,
Their nervousness disappeared,

Their teamwork, Their compassion,
Bravery and determination,
Paved their path towards victory.

Three months the battle lasted,
The year was nineteen ninety nine,
The Indian soldiers were so devoted,
The battle one day had to resign.

They laid their lives
for the nation's glory,
Their families cried
and the whole country was sorry.

They proclaimed Tiger Hill,
The pride of Kargil,
so, in their honour kargil day is celebrated.
