Detailed Information about Events Conducted:

(1)

1. Title of the event: National Science Day
2. Date and duration: 28/02/2024
3. Venue: Ram Lal Anand College
4. Nature of event: Intra-college
5. Brief summary of the event: Hasratein, in collaboration with Terrex, the geological society of Ram Lal Anand College, delivered a captivating street play on the topic "Nature's Call" on the occasion of National Science Day. The play used powerful storytelling to showcase how human actions are harming the environment, urging for a collective effort to protect nature. Through engaging performances, it highlighted the urgent need for conservation and the impact of individual actions on the planet's well-being. The audience and teachers were highly impressed by the play, lauding its impactful message and the team's performance. Dr. Prabhas Pandey, the convenor of the society, also commended the play for its powerful portrayal and message about nature conservation. This unique performance, different from our usual street production, provided the team with a rewarding and enriching experience.

1. Title of the event: नाट्यशाला
2. Date and duration: 18/3/2024 – 21/3/2024
3. Venue: Ram Lal Anand College
4. Nature of event: Intra-college
5. Brief summary of the event: Team Hasratein participated in a 4-day immersive theatre workshop, नाट्यशाला (Natya Shaala), where they delved into the intricacies of script and character development, stage presence, and directing principles. Divided into groups, they creatively interpreted plays by celebrated authors like Prem Chand, Sadat Hasan Manto, and Franz Kafka. On the final day, each group showcased their learning and creativity with full-scale stage productions, complete with costumes, music, and props. This enriching experience broadened their understanding of societal possibilities and the power of storytelling. The workshop concluded with a memorable ceremony where the theatre group was honoured with a memento by their teacher members and president. Inspired and motivated, Team Hasratein is committed to continuing their exploration of various art forms to enhance their storytelling abilities and make a meaningful impact on society.

1. Title of the event: ILTIJA (Annual Fest of Hasratein)
2. Date and duration: 24/04/2024
3. Venue: Ram Lal Anand College
4. Nature of event: Intra-college
5. Brief summary of the event: This competition hosted by Hasratein provided a platform to showcase the talent in street plays and engage with important social issues through the medium of theatre. The event aimed to promote awareness, spark conversations, and inspire change through the event. A total of 9 dramatic societies were shortlisted to compete in the event. Roll Calls marked the beginning of the event. There were tremendous performances by many teams. Itija, a fest with a wedding-based theme, was a celebration that immersed attendees in the joy and traditions of a traditional Indian wedding. The fest began with a traditional common call, setting the tone for the festivities ahead. The invitation cards, designed to resemble wedding cards, added an element of authenticity and excitement for the event. The venue was adorned with decorations that reflected the wedding theme, including a beautifully crafted doli and cardboard cutouts of dulha and dulhan, creating a festive and vibrant atmosphere.

3. Venue: Janki Devi Memorial College
4. Nature of event: Inter-college
5. Brief summary of the event: Anubhuti - The Dramatics society of JDMC conducted MUNADI as part of their annual fest. Hasratein also performed their annual street production "YEH MAI HI HU".

Roll Calls marked the beginning of the event. There were tremendous performances by many teams. Our performance was highly energetic and left a lasting impression on the audience. The music of their play was also noteworthy, engaging the audience and enhancing the overall impact of their performance. The sound effects and background score were perfectly synchronized with the actions of the actors, creating a captivating experience for the audience. Although our performance fell short of securing a spot in the list of winners, the feedback from the judges was remarkably positive.

5. Brief summary of the event: The stage plays 'THE BET' and 'HUNGER ARTIST' performed by Hasratein during the English Society's event, "Ubiquitous," explores the pervasive influence of language and culture in contemporary society. Through a series of interconnected vignettes, the narrative delves into the challenges and triumphs of individuals navigating a world where English has become a dominant force. The Bet," inspired by Anton Chekhov's short story, explores themes of morality, freedom, and the value of human life through a wager between two characters—one advocating for the sanctity of life and the other for the isolation of imprisonment. Hunger Artist," based on Franz Kafka's work, delves into the life of a performer who fasts as an art form, reflecting on themes of alienation, the search for meaning, and the public's fickle nature. The play combines humor and poignant moments to highlight the complexities of cultural exchange, ultimately celebrating the richness of multilingualism and the shared human experience.
