Date – 18TH

September 2023

Venue – Lab 42

Timing – 10:00 AM –

12:00 PM

Nature - Intra College

Summary:

The interview was conducted on 18th September 2023 in the commerce lab. The interview was conducted by Dr. Nupur Saboo and Dr. Ritu Vats. We have received a huge number of entries for the different posts, all the candidates were allotted different time slots to avoid any hustle and indiscipline. The president and secretary's post were reserved for third-year candidates, the vice-president and treasurer's post were reserved for second-year candidates and the joint secretary's post was reserved for first-year candidates. Several types of questions were asked during the interview to check their ability and skills like why should we give you a chance over others, how you will be an asset to our society. What type of events should be conducted by the society? What are your strengths and weaknesses? The whole interview process was completed successfully. Results were announced in the evening by Teacher-In-Charge Dr Ritu Vats.

Summary:

The quiz competition assessed participants' expertise in accounting, finance, marketing, management, and entrepreneurship. The questions covered a wide array of topics, such as financial statement analysis, investment planning, market research methods, organizational theories, and startup strategies. Participants were challenged to apply these concepts to solve complex business problems and showcase their understanding of real-world scenarios. The competition aimed to identify individuals with a holistic grasp of commerce-related disciplines, emphasizing critical thinking, analytical skills, and practical knowledge. Participants were evaluated on their ability to integrate these domains, demonstrating a comprehensive understanding of the multifaceted aspects of modern business practices. In the fund allocation competition, participants were tasked with optimizing the distribution of limited resources among various investment options. This challenge tested their financial acumen, strategic thinking, and risk management skills. Participants analyzed different investment opportunities, considering factors like potential returns, risks, market trends, and economic indicators. They developed investment portfolios, justified their choices based on market analysis. The competition evaluated participants' ability to make informed decisions, allocate funds wisely, and adapt to changing market conditions. It fosters financial literacy, decision-making agility, and analytical prowess among participants, preparing them for real-world investment scenarios.

Result:

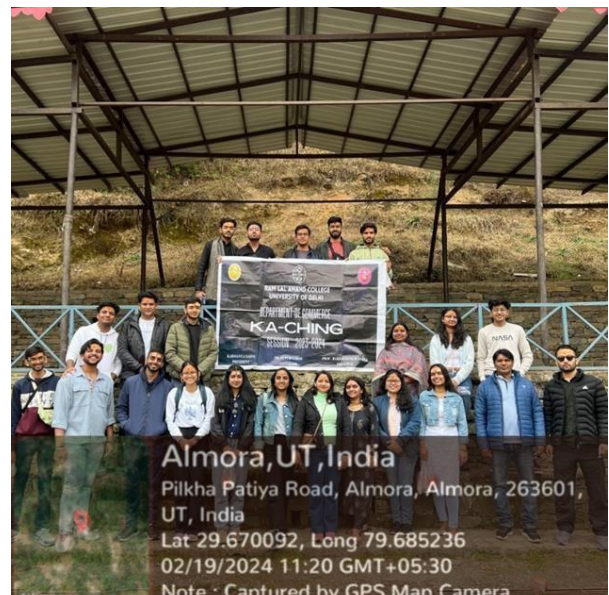

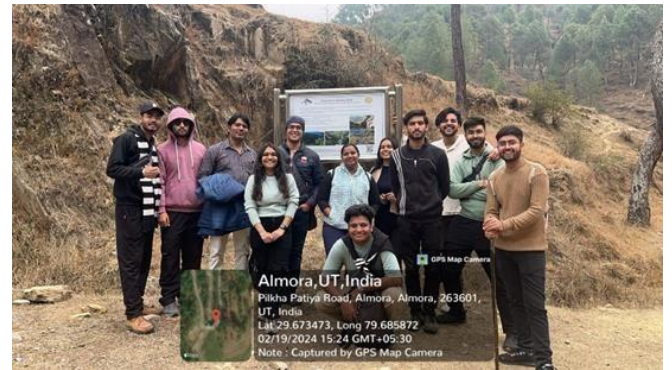

The two days of interaction with the women, children and men of village, the students have gathered that villages have a common problem of unawareness about government schemes and career opportunities available. Along with this, there is a lot of male dominance and women are not allowed to work (other than household chores). Early age marriages are also prominent.

Average family size is 7-8 person per family. They consist of grandparents, parents and children.

Average income is 30,000 to 40,000 per month, by farming and cattle rearing along with homestays and other activities. The village is not very well connected to main city and the recent developments by college are surely helping them.

The children want to work, but another major issue is of migration and not keeping in contact after settling in towns.

Summary:

The annual departmental fest- the two days of festivities hosted various events, competitions, discussions and lots of learning with fun.

On Day1-

We had Business Conclave- A Panel Discussion on the topic “Roadmapping India Journey towards achieving Viksit Bharat 2047”. Our Panel Consisted of CA ARCHIT AGARWAL (Founder@THINKING BRIDGE), RAGHUVVEER NATH (Vice President@IIVPM), ATUL KULSHRESHTHA (Senior Vice President@QUINTES GLOBAL).

The Second event for the day was a Quiz Competition based on brand and logo recognition. It was competition open only for RLAC students. Teams participated with full enthusiasm and vigor. The quiz aimed to test the students knowledge about various brands, their logos and memory along with the impact of these brands and their packaging and advertising.

On Day2-

The day Started with Franchise Forum- Building and Bidding the essence of auction. This competition consisted of two sub-competitions: Jersey Designing and IPL Auction. The event aimed at testing finance management along with designing and marketing skills. It also aimed to test the market knowledge and preference.

Another competition lined up for the day was "Markverse," which was a marketing case study competition open to students from various colleges. A total of 97 participants registered for the event, showcasing a high level of interest and enthusiasm among students. The presentations delved into diverse marketing strategies, covering topics such as product positioning, target audience analysis, promotional tactics, and market research insights. "Markverse" aimed to cultivate creative thinking and strategic planning skills among students interested in marketing. It provided a platform for participants to apply theoretical knowledge to practical scenarios and hone their presentation abilities.

Feedback:

The participants loved the overall management of the event along with the competition and enjoyed the auctioning process. They felt it was a nice way to learn finance management and were intrigued by the add-on of jersey designing. Overall they felt the infrastructure was apt for the competition. They also enjoyed all the competitions and were delighted to be part of such a panel discussion. The panel discussion was a great.
