NSS ANNUAL FESTIVAL 2023

Ram Lal Anand College, University Of Delhi
20th and 21st March

ABOUT US

VALUES THAT GUIDES US

The NSS unit of Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi under the direction of Dr. Rita Jain (Program Officer), seeks to raise social awareness among youth by highlighting societal ills with a greater altruistic goal of assisting the country as a whole. The primary goals of NSS is to develop in volunteers a sense of social responsibility and the importance of giving back to society without discrimination. NSS volunteers make it a priority to ensure that everyone in need receives assistance in order to raise their level of living and live a life of dignity. It strives to foster a feeling of social and civic responsibility, develop leadership abilities and a democratic mentality, and come up with workable solutions to problems that affect both the individual and the community. The unit has been promoting community service by hosting a variety of events, such as an education camp, donation and cleaning drives, road safety campaigns, slogan and article writing contests, painting, and other similar activities.

ABOUT SANKALP

WHAT WE AIM FOR?

Sankalp is the annual festival of the National Service Scheme Unit of Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi. Sankalp'23 is being organized as a two-day event on 20th and 21 March, 2023 at the college premises.

The festival seeks to inspire individuals to engage in social work through various thought-provoking activities featuring social enthusiasts and compassionate youth. The event aims to establish a sense of awareness among young talents and transform their lives with a more valuable purpose through social service. This initiative is embarked on to depict the power of selflessness. In this festival, we continue to reach this objective through some activities and reward the volunteers. Come join us at the annual festival of thoughtfulness and compassion.
