PAN-INDIA PLANTATION DRIVE 2021-22

ORGANISED BY

VASUDHA ECO CLUB

Continuing with its tradition of preserving Environment and having eco-friendly activities, Vasudha Eco Club of Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi has organized a Pan India Plantation drive 2021-22 in the month of December to sensitize community about environment consciousness under the guidance of principal Prof. Rakesh Kumar Gupta. More than 40 participants (of History honors 1st year) from different states have participated. The main objective of this drive was to increase surrounding green cover, to engage and make everyone aware of plant protection, preservation and wellbeing. Needless to say, the drive became the huge success, group of students gathered people around them, chanted slogans like "Ped lagao ped bachao" and planted around 200 saplings (in total) of Neem, Ashoka tree, Hibiscus, Bael tree, Tamarind plant etc. In various localities with great zeal. Some plants were gifted by local residents and nursery to support this noble initiative wholeheartedly and by this way the light of awareness spread from an individual to groups. The students gained invaluable experience and knowledge about the different species and procedure of planting trees. Mainly, this event served a quadruple purpose- to educate the youth, contribution to the betterment of nature, skill development and reminiscence.
