SWACHHHTA ABHIYAAN

The National Service Scheme Unit of Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi, in collaboration with NCC Unit of Ram Lal Anand College organized a Swachchhta Abhiyan on August 13, 2024 at 2 P.M. in the college premises.

Inspired by Marie Kondo's vision of cleanliness as a path to happiness, this initiative aims to foster a cleaner and healthier environment within the college. The drive emphasizes the collective responsibility of students and staff in contributing to a cleaner India, echoing the values for which our freedom fighters strived.

Students participated in this event with great enthusiasm. Approximately 30 students were a part of this Abhiyaan. This event not only supports the national cleanliness mission but also promotes community engagement and environmental stewardship among students.

TIRANGA MARCH AND FLAG DISTRIBUTION

On August 14, 2024, the NSS and NCC Units of Ram Lal Anand College orchestrated a stirring display of patriotism through a flag march and distribution drive. From the unit, 23 volunteers participated in the March in which 8 were females. The event, inspired by Bal Gangadhar Tilak's powerful words, "Swaraj is my birthright and I shall have it," commenced at 12 P.M. from the college campus and proceeded to Durgabai Deshmukh Metro Station.

Participants, filled with national fervour, marched proudly, carrying the tricolour – a symbol of India's rich history and values. The drive aimed to distribute flags among the public, fostering a sense of unity and remembrance of the sacrifices made for independence.

This initiative not only celebrated the upcoming Independence Day but also reinforced the significance of the national flag as the soul of the nation. The event successfully kindled a spirit of patriotism and national integrity among participants and onlookers alike.

PARTITION HORRORS REMEMBRANCE DAY

The National Service Scheme Unit of Ram Lal Anand College , University of Delhi, attended the Partition Horrors Remembrance Day Event on August 14, 2024. The Ministry of Culture organized this significant event at Bharat Mandapam, to observe 'Partition Horrors Remembrance Day.' This event aimed to reflect on the traumatic experiences of the partition and to foster a collective commitment to ensuring such tragedies are never repeated.

Hon'ble Minister of Home and Co-operation, Shri Amit Shah, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest, emphasizing the importance of remembering and learning from the past. In preparation for the event, 50 volunteers from our Unit were selected to Participate. Buses were arranged from South Campus to transport the volunteers to the venue.

This event was a vital opportunity for the volunteers to engage in a meaningful commemoration and to honor the memory of those affected by the partition.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

On August 15, 2024, Ram Lal Anand College hosted a solemn Flag Hoisting Ceremony. Approximately 8 (3) volunteers from the NSS unit of Ram Lal Anand College attended as esteemed spectators, demonstrating patriotic fervor. The event fostered national unity and pride, commemorating India's 78th Independence Day with dignity and solemnity.
