

English Department and Ubiquitous, the English Literary Society

The aim of the English Department and the English Literary Society is to evoke love and appreciation for literature in the students by organising various kinds of activities throughout the year.

The Society under the guidance of the TIC Dr Prerna Malhotra and the Convener Ms Deepshikha Kumari , organised a talk on 'Historical view on Diaspora' by Mr Rajeev Kumar. Various movies were screened throughout the year for the benefit of the students followed by interactive sessions. A competition—Spin a Yarn- was organised which saw a large amount of participation.

The Department organised a Seminar on 'Greek Literature and Theatre' in collaboration with Indo-Hellenic Friendship League which saw eminent speakers from the field of Indian and Greek theatre. It included Prof. Devendra Raj Ankur, Ex-Director of National School of Drama and Dr. Bharat Gupt, Trustee Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts.

The Department also organised a three day Intensive Writing Workshop in collaboration with UDDAN (Unfolding Drama and Arts to awaken the nation). The workshop had eminent names from media and writing to interact - Prof. KG Suresh, Ex- Director General, IIMC, Pradeep Bhandari, Jan Ki Baat, Adv. Anirudh Sharma and others. The Valedictory programme was honoured with the presence of the Chairman, Governing Body of the College, Sh. Daya Prakash Sinha.

Lit Fest' 20 was organised as part of the annual departmental festival with various activities which saw a lot of enthusiastic participation.
