12. Brief feedback report – A feedback form which was floated among the students.

On a scale of 1-5, most of the feedbacks were of 5/5 rating. Some students suggested that the orientation program should be in bilingual mode and not only English.

The recruitment form for Round 1 of screening for Personal interviews was also floated which were filled by the students. Overall, the orientation was a great success, the team was able to influence and leave a positive impact on numerous students, our social media platforms had a sudden increase of followers there and then.

12. Brief feedback report: When assessing the quality of a financial modeling course, these key aspects were considered:

- 1. Content Depth and Breadth: A good course that covered a wide range of financial modeling techniques, from basic concepts to advanced topics. It should include modules on forecasting, valuation, financial statement analysis, and scenario analysis among others.

2. Practical Application: A course that provides hands-on experience with real-world examples and case studies. Practical exercises and projects are essential for reinforcing theoretical concepts and developing proficiency in financial modeling.
3. Qualified Instructors: Ensured that the instructors are experienced professionals with a strong background in finance and financial modeling. Their expertise and ability to convey complex concepts clearly are crucial for your learning experience.
4. Interactive Learning Platform: A good course that offered a user-friendly platform with interactive elements such as quizzes, forums, and live sessions. This facilitates engagement and allowed for discussions with instructors and fellow learners.
5. Flexibility: Considering the flexibility of the course in terms of schedule, duration, and learning pace. A course that allowed students to learn at their own pace and offers flexibility in accessing materials can be advantageous, especially if they have other commitments.
6. Resources and Support: The course provides additional resources such as templates, spreadsheets, and reference materials. Also, the level of support available to participants, including access to instructors or mentors for guidance and assistance.
7. Certification: A recognized certification upon completion of the course added credibility to the skills and enhanced the resume.

6. Brief summary of the event:

Originally Mr. Aalekh Tripathi- founder of DIGIACCEL was invited as the guest speaker. However due to some medical conditions Mr. Aalekh Tripathi could not come as a guest. Therefore Ms. Puja Das filled in for Aalekh Tripathi at the very last moment and which turned out to be a great success. The guest lecture was scheduled for a couple of hours in seminar room on the topic Understandin Marketing Career Pathways. The session was really Informative and speaker was interactive the students also turned up in great numbers. The Speaker Enlighted students with marketing algorithms and marketing trends. She sighted that marketing trends and the six P's namely promotion, price, place, product, people, and presentation is the key for successful entrepreneurship. Following the Enlightening talk and the session by her, the eagerly anticipated question and answer session unfolded where the brilliant minds posed insightful questions diving deep into marketing and key of its algorithm. The session concluded with vice president Diva Dhingra giving thanks note to audience and speaker Miss Pooja Das with Srijana ma'am giving token of appreciation to the speaker.

12. Brief feedback report: A great career counselling session should leave the individual feeling empowered, informed, and inspired to take action towards their career goals. Here are some key elements of effective feedback as given by the students:

1. Clarity: The explanations were clear and easy to understand. It was evident that you have a strong grasp of various career options and how they align with the individual's skills, interests, and values.
2. Insightful Assessment: The assessment of the individual's strengths, weaknesses, interests, and values was insightful and helped provide valuable direction for their career exploration.
3. Tailored Guidance: The guidance provided was personalized to the individual's unique circumstances and aspirations. Practical advice and actionable steps were offered to help them navigate their career path effectively.
4. Encouragement: Offered encouragement and support, boosting the individual's confidence and motivation to pursue their career goals despite any challenges they may face.
5. Resourcefulness: Knowledge of resources, such as job search websites, networking opportunities, and professional development programs, was impressive and will be invaluable to the individual as they continue their career journey.
6. Follow-up Plan: Outlined a clear follow-up plan to help the individual stay on track with their career goals. This shows the commitment to their success beyond the counselling session.

Detailed Information about Events:

1. Title of the event: CV Building Workshop
2. Date and duration: 14th February, 2024, 11AM – 1 PM
3. Venue/online: Amphitheatre, Ram Lal Anand College
4. Nature of event: Intracollege
5. Invited speakers, their affiliation and brief profile of each speaker:

Mr. Raghav Mutneja, a leading Education Consultant was invited as the guest speaker. The guest lecture was scheduled for a couple of hours in the Amphitheatre on the topic 'CV Building' which was then followed by an Aptitude Test and whole the session turned out to be a great success. The session proved highly beneficial, with an engaging speaker and a significant turnout of enthusiastic students.

6. Brief summary of the event:

The speaker emphasized the importance of crafting a professional CV for corporate careers, providing guidance on its essential elements and tailoring it to specific company needs. Additionally, tips were shared on creating a concise CV and an effective LinkedIn profile. The session involved a discussion on approaching HRs for job opportunities, with active student participation. President Abhishek Gupta concluded by thanking the audience and the speaker, Mr. Raghav Mutneja, and presenting him with a token of appreciation. Subsequently, students participated in an aptitude test with high engagement.

- 5. Invited speakers, their affiliation and brief profile of each speaker:

Ms. Nupur Gupta, Senior Associate at Z1 Tech and Mr. Subhag Singh, HR Generalist at FCB Group were invited as the chief panelist for the round. The main aspect of this round was to focus on skills, effective communication, time management, Decision-making which turned out to be a great success. The session was really informative and students also turned up in great numbers. From a pool of 100 students top 30 students were selected for the panel interview round.
- 6. Brief summary of the event:

The awaited Group Discussion round dwelled into various aspects of corporate readiness. During the session, participants engaged in a comprehensive corporate assessment and personal development process. The faculty of Pathway was the panel for the group discussion and the main aspect of this round was to focus on skills like public speaking, Effective communication, Conflict Resolution, Decision-making which turned out to be a great success. The session was really informative and students also turned up in great numbers.

During the mock personal interview session, it was observed that panel interviews, conducted by HR, provided a comprehensive evaluation tool for candidates. Multiple interviewers offered diverse perspectives on the candidate's suitability for the role, enabling a thorough assessment of skills, experience, and personality. The panel format facilitated exploration of various competencies relevant to the job and allowed HR representatives to collaboratively analyze cultural alignment. Varied questions provided a comprehensive understanding of candidate responses, while involvement of representatives from different departments offered a broader perspective on potential contributions. Overall, panel interviews aimed for a well- rounded evaluation, leading to informed hiring decisions.

11. Brief feedback report :

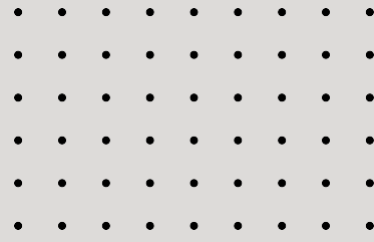

The mock personal interview, led by Ms. Nupur Gupta and Mr. Subhag Singh, highlighted the effectiveness of panel interviews for comprehensive candidate evaluation. Diverse perspectives ensured thorough assessment, while collaborative analysis of cultural fit by HR representatives was valuable. Involving representatives from different departments provided a broader perspective. Thanks to Ms. Gupta and Mr. Singh for their expertise and insights. Further consistency in questioning and evaluation criteria was suggested for improvement in future sessions. Overall, the mock interviews were a highly beneficial session for the students.

The event witnessed a great turnout with over 500+ Pre registrations followed by over 100+ on spot registrations on Day 1

300+ Pre registrations followed by over 100+ on spot registrations on Day 2

The Placement Cell is committed to providing the best opportunities for the students and invites numerous companies each year offering internship profiles in areas including Marketing, Content Writing, Sales Human Resources, Research and Development, and Data Analytic etc.

Over 200+ students from different colleges of Delhi University appeared for recruitment. The recruitment process for majority companies spread across different stages - CV Screening Personal Interview. This opportunity allowed students to showcase their skills and interact with potential employers.

Milestone 4.0 had the presence of about 50 companies providing various placement and internship opportunities. The highest CTC offered for placement was of 7.5LPA and the stipend of 40k. We received a total of 2434 registrations for various different profiles, out of which 979 interviews were held and 317 students were shortlisted after the first round.

Finally till date 148 students successfully received their offer letters and the count is still on.

Our Annual Placement Event concluded with an atmosphere of achievement and anticipation. The venue buzzed with students connecting with industry professionals, fostering both learning and camaraderie. The success of Day 1 set a dynamic stage for even more impactful experiences on the upcoming day. As the second day ended, participants left with newfound knowledge and meaningful connections, eagerly looking forward for Milestone 5.0 in the upcoming session.
