NAME OF EVENT: Movie Screening

DATE AND DURATION: 13-10-2025, 01:00 p.m. to 04:00 p.m.

VENUE: Amphitheatre, Ram Lal Anand College

FACULTY COORDINATORS PRESENT: Mr. Gandharv Koushiy (Convener)
Mr. Vikas Kumar (Co-Convener)

MOVIE NAME: Jai Bhim

NUMBER OF PARTICIPATING STUDENTS: 172

NUMBER OF BOYS: 128 NUMBER OF GIRLS: 44

BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE EVENT: The Ambedkar Study Circle organized a special screening of the award-winning film Jai Bhim to encourage students to engage with issues of caste discrimination, social justice, and constitutional rights. The event aimed to create a thoughtful space where participants could witness the struggles faced by marginalized communities and reflect on the role of law and activism in shaping a more equitable society. Students actively attended the screening, showing strong interest in the themes and discussions the film evokes. Following the movie, members of the Study Circle initiated an open conversation on the film's relevance in contemporary India. Participants shared their insights on the portrayal of injustice, legal battles, and Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's ideals reflected in the narrative. The screening not only deepened understanding of systemic inequalities but also strengthened the collective commitment of the group toward creating awareness, encouraging critical thinking, and upholding constitutional values on campus.

SPEAKER: Mr. Shantanu Jugtawat (Advocate, Supreme Court of India)

NUMBER OF PARTICIPATING STUDENTS: 97

BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE EVENT: The Ambedkar Study Circle organized an insightful speaker session on the occasion of Constitution Day, featuring guest speaker Shantanu Jugtawat. He delivered an engaging talk on the evolution, significance, and contemporary relevance of the Indian Constitution, emphasizing how its core values continue to guide India's democratic journey. Students from various departments participated with enthusiasm, gaining a deeper understanding of constitutional principles, rights, and responsibilities.

In the interactive discussion that followed, Shantanu Jugtawat encouraged students to critically examine present-day challenges to constitutional morality and democratic institutions. Participants raised thoughtful questions, engaging in meaningful dialogue on citizenship, equality, and the importance of youth involvement in safeguarding constitutional ideals. The session not only enriched students' knowledge but also reinforced the Study Circle's commitment to promoting awareness and constitutional literacy on campus.

SUMMARY: The Ambedkar Study Circle of Ram Lal Anand College organized “The Constitutional Knowledge Quest” on 21st November 2025 at the college amphitheatre. The event began at 12:00 PM and aimed to enhance constitutional awareness and encourage students to engage with the principles of the Indian Constitution. The competition was conducted in two rounds, each progressively testing students’ knowledge and analytical understanding of constitutional concepts. Students participated with enthusiasm, contributing to a competitive and engaging environment. At the end of the event, Mr. Gandharv Koushiy, Convenor of the society, felicitated the winners. Trophies were awarded to the top three position holders:

1. Robin Singh – First Position
2. Kritik Gupta – Second Position
3. Raza – Third Position

All participants were also awarded Certificates of Participation, while the winners received both certificates and trophies. The event successfully strengthened constitutional awareness, critical thinking, and civic engagement among students.

NAME OF EVENT: Ink Spire – Republic Day Essay Writing Competition

THEME: 1) Freedom Without Dignity Is Not Freedom 2) Ambedkar Gave Us Rights — Why Are We Afraid to Use Them? 3) Constitutional Morality: The Soul of the Indian Republic

DATE AND DURATION: 29 January 2026, 90 Minutes

VENUE: Seminar Room, Ram Lal Anand College

FACULTY COORDINATORS PRESENT: Mr. Gandharv Koushiy (Convenor)
Dr. Vikas Kumar (Co-Convenor)

NUMBER OF PARTICIPATING STUDENTS: 50

BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE EVENT: The Ambedkar Study Circle organized Ink Spire – Republic Day Essay Writing Competition to encourage students to critically engage with constitutional values and democratic principles through reflective writing. Participants were invited to compose essays on one of the given themes focusing on dignity, constitutional rights, and the idea of constitutional morality inspired by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's vision. The competition was conducted in English and Hindi with a word limit of 800–1200 words and a duration of 90 minutes. Students from various departments participated enthusiastically, presenting thoughtful arguments supported by contemporary examples and critical perspectives. Essays were assessed based on originality, analytical depth, relevance, and clarity of expression. The event created an intellectually stimulating environment that promoted awareness of constitutional ideals, civic responsibility, and democratic engagement. It also strengthened participants' analytical thinking and academic writing skills. Overall, the initiative was well received and contributed meaningfully to promoting constitutional literacy and dialogue within the campus community.

NAME OF EVENT: Ambedkar Jayanti Celebration

DATE/DURATION: 14-04-2026/11:00 a.m. onwards

OCASSION: 135th Birth Anniversary of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar

VENUE: Maitreyi College, University of Delhi

NUMBERS OF PARTICIPANTS: 4

BRIEF SUMMARY OF EVENT: Members of the Ambedkar Study Circle attended the celebration of Ambedkar Jayanti at Maitreyi College, University of Delhi. The programme began with insightful speeches by distinguished guests, who highlighted the life, ideals, and contributions of B. R. Ambedkar. This was followed by a short film that beautifully depicted Babasaheb's journey and his role in shaping modern India. The event also featured vibrant cultural performances, including regional dances presented by students, showcasing India's diversity. A powerful nukkad natak further addressed social issues and reflected Ambedkar's vision of equality and justice. Overall, the celebration was thought-provoking and enriched the attendees with deeper knowledge and inspiration. One of the member of society, Miss. Geetanjali presented a beautiful hindi poem on life of Babasaheb Ambedkar and gave the message of equality and social harmony.
